

Sebastian Jobs, Alf Lüdtke (eds.)

Unsettling History

Archiving and Narrating in Historiography

Campus Verlag
Frankfurt/New York

Contents

| | |
|--|-----|
| Unsettling History: Introduction Sebastian Jobs/ Alf Lüdtke | 7 |
| 1. History: (Non-)Western Pitfalls and Expectations | |
| Memories of Things Future: Future Effects in “The Production of History” David William Cohen | 29 |
| Multiple Narratives: Scale and Discontinuity in History Jacques Revel | 49 |
| Empire, Ethics, and the Calling of History: Knowledge in the Postcolony Dipesh Chakrabarty | 63 |
| 2. Archiving: Administering Lives and Memories? | |
| OldBeijing.net—a Chinese Virtual “Heimatmuseum” Michael Schoenhals | 89 |
| Ranke in the Lobby of the Archive: Metaphors and Conditions of Historical Research Philipp Müller | 109 |
| Archiving a Life: Post-Shoah Paradoxes of Memory Legacies Leora Auslander | 127 |
| At Large in the “Gray Zone”: Narrating the Romani Holocaust Eve Rosenhaft | 149 |

3. Narrating the Past: Quest for Authenticity vs. Search for Professionalism

Getting Personal: On Subjectivity in Historical Practice

Sheila Fitzpatrick 183

Narrating the Siege of Leningrad: Official and Unofficial Practices in the Memorialization of the “Great Patriotic War”

Andrea Zemskov-Züge..... 199

Masterlore: Reflections on an Ancient Genre in the New World

Rhys Isaac..... 219

Moving Bones: Unsettled Histories in South Africa and the Return of Sarah Baartman

Gesine Krüger..... 233

Contributors.....251