

Inhalt

Past and Present Energy Societies

How Energy Connects Politics, Technologies and Cultures

Karin Zachmann | 7

Cultural Representations of Energy

Electrifying the World

Representations of Energy and Modern Life at World's Fairs, 1893-1982

Nina Möllers | 45

“We want to live electrically!”

Marketing Strategies of German Power Companies in the 20th Century

Sophie Gerber | 79

Filming Electrical Consumption

EDF's Promotional Films (1946-2004)

Yves Bouvier | 109

Energy Consumption Practices

Managing Energy Consumption

The Rental Business for Storage Water Heaters of Berlin's Electricity Company from the Late 1920s to the Early 1960s

Nina Lorkowski | 137

Saving Energy by Shifting Clocks?

Energy Policy and the Introduction of Daylight Saving Time in East and West Germany

Mathias Mutz | 163

Energy Consumption Practices and Social Inequality

The Case of Low-Income Households

Karl-Michael Brunner, Anja Christanell, Markus Spitzer | 195

Societal Perceptions of Energy Resources

Cultural Meanings of Wood Gas as Automobile Fuel in Sweden, 1930-1945

Helena Ekerholm | 223

Missing Green in the Black Gold

Environment in the Public Debate on West Siberian Oil Production from the 1970s to the Present

Valentina Roxo | 249

Publics in the Pipeline

On Bioenergy and its Imagined Publics in Norway and Sweden

Tomas Moe Skjølsvold | 277

Patterns of Energy Transitions

The Long-Term Role of Energy in the Economic Growth of Europe

Silvana Bartoletto | 305

Authors | 331

Figures and Tables | 335