

Contents

List of Figures	vii
Contributors	ix
1 The Origins of Marketing and Market Research: Information, Institutions, and Markets Hartmut Berghoff, Philip Scranton, and Uwe Spiekermann	1
2 Selling Indian Indigo in Traditional and Modern European Markets, 1780–1910 Alexander Engel	27
3 “Cotton Guessers”: Crop Forecasters and the Rationalizing of Uncertainty in American Cotton Markets, 1890–1905 Jamie L. Pietruska	49
4 Mail-Order Doctors and Market Research, 1890–1930 Daniel J. Robinson	73
5 Making Metropolitan Markets: Information, Intermediaries, and Real Estate in Modern Paris Alexia M. Yates	95
6 Introducing Small Firms to International Markets: The Debates over the Commercial Museums in France and Germany, 1880–1910 S�everine Antigone Marin	127
7 Making the Ledgers Talk: Customer Control and the Origins of Retail Data Mining, 1920–1940 Josh Lauer	153

8	Markets, Consumers, and the State: The Uses of Market Research in Government and the Public Sector in Britain, 1925–1955 Stefan Schwarzkopf	171
9	Mrs. Housewife and the Ad Men: Advertising, Market Research, and Mass Consumption in Postwar Britain Sean Nixon	193
10	Subliminal Seduction: The Politics of Consumer Research in Post–World War II America Kenneth Lipartito	215
11	Gender Realignment: The Design and Marketing of Gas Stations for Women Greg Donofrio	237
12	The Bad Science and the Black Arts: The Reception of Marketing in Socialist Europe Patrick Hyder Patterson	269
	Index	295

List of Figures

2.1	Merchant's box set containing indigo samples, eighteenth century	34
2.2	Wrapped can of brand indigo, circa 1900	41
4.1	Pinkham ad with testimonial for "Middle-Aged Women"	77
11.1	Self-Service , 1980, by Max Yavno	238
11.2	Marketing clean restrooms at Esso gas stations	246
11.3	Marketing clean restrooms with a nurse	247
11.4	Advertisement featuring an unusually helpful gas station attendant	248
11.5	Women training to work at gas stations during World War II	251
11.6	Advertisement for Tokheim pumps	259
11.7	Advertisement for Dresser pumps	260