

Transnational Television History

A Comparative Approach

Edited by
Andreas Fickers and Catherine Johnson

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
1. Introduction: Transnational Television History: A comparative approach Andreas Fickers and Catherine Johnson	1
Section I: Actors and Arenas of Transnational Television: A Historical Re-Assessment
2. The Birth of Eurovision: Transnational television as a challenge for Europe and contemporary media historiography Andreas Fickers	13
3. Creating Transnationality through an International Organization? The European Broadcasting Union's (EBU) television programme activities Christian Henrich-Franke	33
4. Transnationality in Dutch (Pre) Television: The central role of Erik de Vries Sonja de Leeuw	49
5. The 'North Atlantic Triangle': Britain, the USA and Canada in 1950s television Michele Hilmes	67
6. Within Excess Times and a Deficit Space: Cross-border television as a transnational phenomenon in 1980s Romania Dana Mustata	89
7. Transatlantic Spaces: Production, location and style in 1960s–1970s action-adventure TV series Jonathan Bignell	103
8. European Crimewatches: A comparative perspective on Aktenzeichen XY's transnational circulation Eggo Müller	117
Section II: Roundtable: Perspectives on Localizing the Transnational in Regional Television History
9. Introduction Catherine Johnson and Andreas Fickers	131

CONTENTS

10. France 3, a state institution: the French model of regional television Benoît Lafon	135
11. Regional television in Germany Edgar Lersch	140
12. Regional television in Spain: the Andalusian case Juan Francisco Gutiérrez Lozano	145
13. From multicultural programming to diasporic television: situating the UK in a European context Sarita Malik	152
Section III: Special Report
14. Curating European Television History Online: Video Active and the challenges of creating access to television content from the archive Rob Turnock	159
Index	169