

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction Catherine Wanner	1
1 Subversive Atheism: Soviet Antireligious Campaigns and the Religious Revival in Ukraine in the 1920s Gregory L. Freeze	27
2 From the Red Cradle: Memories of Jewish Family Life in the Soviet Union Anna Shternshis	63
3 Christianity and Radical Nationalism: Metropolitan Andrei Sheptytsky and the Bandera Movement John-Paul Himka	93

4	The Revival of Monastic Life in the Trinity-Sergius Lavra after World War II Scott Kenworthy	117
5	“They Burned the Pine, but the Place Remains All the Same”: Pilgrimage in the Changing Landscape of Soviet Russia Stella Rock	159
6	Sacramental Confession in Modern Russia and Ukraine Nadieszda Kizenko	190
7	A Time and Space of Suffering: Reflections of the Soviet Past in the Memoirs and Narratives of the Evangelical Christians–Baptists Olena Panych	218
8	Preaching the Kingdom Message: The Jehovah’s Witnesses and Soviet Secularization Zoe Knox	244
9	A Multireligious Region in an Atheist State: Unionwide Policies Meet Communal Distinctions in the Postwar Mari Republic Sonja Luehrmann	272
10	The Revival before the Revival: Popular and Institutionalized Religion in Ukraine on the Eve of the Collapse of Communism Viktor Yelensky	302
	Contributors	331
	Index	335