

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Foreword of the Editors	7
Maren Röger / Ruth Leiserowitz
Introduction: Gender and World War II in Central and Eastern Europe	9
I GENDER RULES: THE POWER OF IDEOLOGICALLY AND AUTOBIOGRAPHICALLY GENDERED INTERPRETIVE MODELS
Elizabeth Harvey
Homelands on the Move: Gender, Space and Dislocation in the Nazi Resettlement of German Minorities from Eastern and Southeastern Europe	35
Mara Lazda
The Discourse of Power through Gender in World War II Latvia	59
Andrea Pető
Women as Victims and Perpetrators in World War II: The Case of Hungary	81
II GENDER ROLES AND GENDERED IDENTITIES IN ARMIES
Łukasz Kielban
Honor and Masculinity in the Polish Officer Corps during World War II in Captivity. Escapes and Courts of Honor: The Case of Oflag VII-A Murnau	97
Kerstin Bischl
Telling Stories. Gender Relationships and Masculinity in the Red Army 1941-45	117
Maren Röger
Sexual Contact between German Occupiers and Polish Occupied in World War II Poland	135

Franka Maubach

- Love, Comradeship, and Power – German Auxiliaries and Gender Relations in the Occupied Territories 157

Georgeta Nazarska / Sevo Yavashchev

- Change in Gender Roles: The Participation of Bulgarian Women in World War II 179

III GENDER ROLES AND GENDERED IDENTITIES IN PARTISAN MOVEMENTSRuth Leiserowitz*

- In the Lithuanian Woods. Jewish and Lithuanian
Female Partisans 199

Barbara N. Wiesinger

- Gendered Resistance: Women Partisans
in Yugoslavia (1941–45) 219

Olena Petrenko

- Anatomy of the Unsaid: Along the Taboo Lines of Female
Participation in the Ukrainian Nationalistic Underground 241

IV POST-WAR: (DIS-)CONTINUITIES AND MEMORIES*Irina Rebrova*

- Russian Women about the War:
A Gender Analysis of Ego-Documents 263

Vita Zelčē

- Latvian Women After World War II 281

Barbara Klich-Kluczecka

- Making Up for the Losses of War:
Reproduction Politics in Post-War Poland 307

- Contributors 329

- List of Abbreviations 335

- Index of Persons 339