

Contents

List of illustrations	viii
Foreword	x
South Asia: a geographical, environmental and historiographical introduction	1
Geographical and political South Asia	1
Historiography of modern South Asia since the 1980s	8
The concept of this book	15
Notes	19
1 State formation and empire building in South Asia c. 1660–1800	20
Forms and models	20
State formation in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries	28
Notes	51
2 Patriotisms and nationalisms in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries	54
The Great Rebellion (1857–9)	55
National movements (1860–1947)	63
Notes	85
3 State formation and empire building in South Asia (1858–1998)	89
The British Raj in India (1858–1947)	90
Indian monarchies and principalities	97
India, Pakistan and Bangladesh	105
Gorkha-Nepal and Ceylon-Sri Lanka	120
Notes	133
4 Agriculture and agro-economy	137
Themes and subjects	137
South Asia's agriculture in the eighteenth century	138

vi Contents

	Continuities, changes and breaks under colonial rule	142
	Characteristics and consequences of colonial agrarian policy	172
	The Green Revolution and the Gene Revolution (1960–2010)	174
	Notes	180
5	Silviculture and scientific forestry	184
	Nature, culture and time	184
	Forest management in South Asia until 1860	187
	The impact of scientific forestry (1860–1920)	192
	Increasing exploitation and growing resistance 1920–90	197
	The new millennium	207
	Notes	209
6	Migration, circulation and diaspora	212
	Theories and thoughts	212
	Early South Asian migration and diaspora communities	216
	South Asians on the new subcontinental and global labour markets	219
	Recruitment of indentured labourers	225
	Migration and settlement	231
	South Asian communities overseas	234
	Migrants, twice migrants, guest workers	246
	A global Indian diaspora?	257
	Notes	259
7	Urbanisation and industrialisation	264
	General observations on urban history and urban development	264
	Overall trends in crafts and industries	268
	Industrialisation and de-industrialisation	272
	Indian-owned industries	276
	The labour market and labourers' organisations	283
	Urbanisation	290
	Municipality and urban planning	295
	Urban development after 1947: metropolises, megacities, middle towns	304
	Notes	310
8	Knowledge, science, technology and power	315
	Themes, theories and subjects	315
	Education: schools, colleges, universities	316
	History and historiography	320
	Natural sciences: botany, geography and geology	325
	From medical knowledge to scientific medicine	332

Irrigation systems and hydraulic constructions 338

Railway construction and railway networks 346

Telecommunication systems and networks 352

Notes 359

Afterthought and prospect

364

Notes 366

Bibliography

367

Index

420