

Cultural Practices and Material Culture in Archaic and Classical Crete

Proceedings of the International Conference, Mainz,
May 20–21, 2011

Edited by
Oliver Pilz and Gunnar Seelentag

DE GRUYTER

Contents

Gunnar Seelentag and Oliver Pilz

Introduction — 1

Donald C. Haggis

Excavations at Azoria and Stratigraphic Evidence for the Restructuring of Cretan Landscapes ca. 600 BCE — 11

Eva Tegou

Archaic and Classical Axos — 41

Brice Erickson

Mind the Gap: Knossos and Cretan Archaeology of the 6th Century — 67

Adam Rabinowitz

Drinkers, Hosts, or Fighters? Masculine Identities in Pre-Classical Crete — 91

Gunnar Seelentag

An Epic Perspective on Institutionalization in Archaic Crete — 121

Karen Rørby Kristensen

Archaic Laws and the Development of Civic Identity in Crete,
ca. 650–450 BCE — 141

Stefan Link

“... there shall be no punishment to them.” Observance of Law and Social Integration in Sparta and Crete — 159

Paula Perlman

Reading and Writing Archaic Cretan Society — 177

Giovanni Marginesu

Use, Re-Use and Erasure of Archaic and Classical Gortynian Inscriptions.
An Archaeological Perspective — 207

Katja Sporn

Graves and Grave Markers in Archaic and Classical Crete — 219

Oliver Pilz

Narrative Art in Archaic Crete — 243

Thomas Brisart

Isolation, Austerity and Fancy Pottery. Acquiring and Using Overseas Imported Fine Wares in 6th- and 5th-Century Eastern Crete — 263

Index — 285