

Contents

Foreword.....	7
The Difficulty of Composing Patriotic History in the Twelfth Century: An Essay on Essays.....	11
Eric Christiansen
“Only through time time is conquered”: Liturgy, History and the Timeless Aspirations of the Temporal.....	23
Sigbjørn Olsen Sønnesyn
Creating a Crusader Saint: Canute Lavard and Others of that ilk.....	51
Kurt Villads Jensen
Kanute, cuius est Dacia? Knud Lavard, dux danorum: Murdered or Martyred?	73
John Bergsagel
The Significance of 25 June, 1170	91
Thomas Riis
Knes Kanutus: Knud Lavard’s Political Project	103
John H. Lind
The Image of St Knud Lavard in his Liturgical Offices and its Historical Impact.....	129
Nils Holger Petersen
Kingship and Sanctity in the Historia in Honour of St Canutus Rex	159
Roman Hankeln
Martyr preciose, miles Christi: St Erik in Chant and Legend.....	193
Ann-Marie Nilsson

The Liturgical Commemoration of Thomas of Canterbury in Scandinavia: The First Thirty Years, 1173–1203	223
John Toy
Gens laudum titulis concrepet Anglica: The Proper Office for St Oswin, King of Deira	251
David Hiley
Life, Legend and Liturgy: The Case of St Mildred	271
John Caldwell
“Last Man Standing”: St David of Menevia	293
Owain Tudor Edwards
Abstracts	321
Notes on Contributors	331
Appendix: Programme of the Symposium’s Closing Concert	