

CONTENTS

1	Introduction	1
2	The Very British Trajectory of a Pro-European: Roy Jenkins and Europe Prior to 1976	19
3	Preparing for Brussels: Priorities, Personalities, and Portfolios	49
4	Growing into the Role: The Battle to Secure G7 Representation	83
5	Finding a Sense of Direction: Jenkins and the Launch of the European Monetary System	113
6	Reaching Out Beyond the Community: Enlargement and International Representation	141
7	The Search for a New Policy Priority: Commission Reform, Direct Elections, Agriculture, and Energy	171

8	The Curse of British Politics: Thatcher, the British Budgetary Dispute, and the Lure of Domestic Politics	199
9	Conclusions	231
	Bibliography	253
	Index	267