

Contents

Acknowledgements VII

Abbreviations IX

A Note on Usage X

Introduction 1

- 1 Peace and Concord 16
 - The Meanings of Peace 16
 - The Attraction of Peace: Features of the Instrumentum Pacis 28
 - Finding Conflict in a Peace 37
 - The Importance of Peace: Statutory Penalties for Peace-Breaking 54
- 2 Peacemaking in the Criminal Courts 59
 - Jurists and Statutes on Peacemaking and Procedure 61
 - A Case Study: Peacemaking and Denunciations in the Sienese Contado 71
 - Peacemaking in Inquests Launched by Fama 86
 - The Use of Peace in Courts into the Quattrocento 89
- 3 Peacemaking and the Criminal Ban 93
 - Peacemaking's Role in Rebannimentum 96
 - Rebannimentum* Petitions and Amnesties 100
 - Peace and Prison Release 113
- 4 Placing the Public in Private Peacemaking 122
 - Between Public and Private Peacemaking 123
 - The Scene of Peace 128
 - Procurators and Peacemaking 135
 - Peacemaking through Friends 142
 - Arbitration and Peacemaking 146
- 5 Ecclesiastical Involvement in Peacemaking 156
 - Preaching Peace and Popular Peace Movements 157
 - Chief Ecclesiastics and Institutions in Peacemaking 165
 - Priests, Rectors, and Monks in Everyday Peacemaking 169
- 6 Performing Peace in Medieval Rome 175

7 Women and Minors in Peacemaking	204
Marriage as an Element of Peacemaking	205
Women in Peacemaking	212
Minors and Peacemaking	226
8 Assessing Peacemaking	235
The Motives for Peace	235
The Effectiveness of Peacemaking	247
Conclusion	255
Appendix A: Map	259
Appendix B: Tables	260
Bibliography	269
Index of Names	298
Index of Places	307
Index of Subjects	310