

EASA Series

Publishing in Association with the European Association of Social Anthropologists (EASA)

Series Editor: Aleksandar Boskovic, University of Beigrade

Social anthropology in Europe is growing, and the variety of work being done is expanding. This series is intended to present the best of the work produced by members of the EASA, both in their original and in edited collections. The subjects in this series describe societies, processes, and institutions around the world and are intended for both scholarly and student readership.
