

Contents

Preface	xi
Acknowledgments	xiii
Note on Names and Translations	xv
Introduction: Enter the Wawel	xvii
1 Wawel at the End of the Polish-Lithuanian Commonwealth (1787–1809)	1
2 From Royal Necropolis to National Pantheon (1815–1820)	29
3 Texts and Contexts: Wawel, Krakow, and Poland in Ambroży Grabowski's Historical Description (1822–1866)	59
4 The Return of Kazimierz the Great and the Renovation of the Royal Graves (1869–1880)	103
5 The Reclamation and Recovery of Wawel Hill (1879–1905)	129
6 Stanisław Wyspiański's Liberation (1903)	153
7 King-Spirits and Kings: Wawel between the World Wars (1914–1945)	177
8 Wawel under Communism (1945–1989)	207
9 From Katyń to Smoleńsk: Commemorating National Tragedy on Wawel (1990–2010)	231

Conclusion	271
Appendix: The Etymology of Wawel	279
Table A.1: List of Coronations and Burials	289
Table A.2: List of Wawelizations	290
Bibliography	291
Index	303
About the Author	315