

Contents

Decolonization(s) and Education: New Politics and New Men	7
Marcelo Caruso & Daniel Maul
'To Forget Everything and to Learn Again.' Post-colonial Republican Order, 'Colonial Education' and Legitimacy in Nineteenth Century Latin America	21
Marcelo Caruso
Imperial Roots of Nationalist Education Model in India 1880–1947	43
Parimala V. Rao
Climbing the Coconut Tree: Three South Indians Use Their Personal Memories of Colonial Education to Influence the Decolonisation of Education after Independence	67
Catriona Ellis
Education, Nation-Building and the Quest for Legitimacy in South Korea	91
Michael J. Seth
Nigerianization as Decolonization. Human Capacity Development in Nigeria 1945–1960	111
Hakeem Ibikunle Tijani
The Effects of Decolonization on Colonial Governance: A Case Study of the Polytechnic in Colonial Hong Kong	139
Ting-Hong Wong
Delineating Youth between the Old and the New. The Youth Magazine Blufo during the Liberation Struggle in Guinea-Bissau (1966–1973)	163
Sónia Vaz Borges

Educational Transfers as Means of Decolonization in Vietnam and Mozambique	183
Tim Kaiser, Ingrid Miethé, Alexandra Piepiorka
Decolonization and Difference in the Context of the German Democratic Republic's Educational Co-operation Programs	211
Jane Weiß
List of Figures	233
Authors	235