

Contents

Preface — V

Note on Transliterations — XI

List of Figures — XIII

1 Introduction: Why does ancient Macedonia matter? — 1

2 The Land: Where was Macedonia? — 4

2.1 The archaic period — 11

2.1.1 The meaning of the term ‘Macedonian expansion’ — 18

2.1.2 Material finds and ‘national’ identities — 19

2.1.2.1 ‘Sindos’ — 19

2.1.2.2 Hagia Paraskevi — 21

2.1.2.3 Aigeai (Vergina) — 21

2.1.2.4 Archontikon — 22

2.1.2.5 ‘Thermi’ — 23

2.1.2.6 Nea Philadelphieia (Klitai?) — 24

2.1.2.7 Aiane — 24

2.2 The classical and Hellenistic periods — 33

2.3 National territory, royal land and allied cities — 38

2.4 Some particular cases — 41

2.4.1 Paionia — 41

2.4.2 Perrhaibian Tripolis — 41

2.4.3 Magnesia — 42

2.4.4 Tymphaia, Parauaia, Atintania — 43

2.4.5 Derriopos — 47

3 Who were the Macedonians? — 49

3.1 The evidence of the ethnics — 49

3.2 Weder Blut noch Boden: How does one become Macedonian? — 50

3.3 The origin of the Macedonians — 60

3.4 The speech of the ancient Macedonians — 63

3.4.1 The ‘Prehistory’ — 64

3.4.2 The ‘pentekontaetia’ revolution — 73

3.5 Macedonian cults and beliefs — 79

3.6 Customs and institutions — 88

3.6.1 Introduction — 88

3.6.2	Ethnos or polis? — 95
3.6.3	Heerkönigtum , feudalism, absolutism or what? — 103
3.6.4	Laws, decrees, epistatai , politarchai and merides — 116
3.7	Perception of self and the other — 121
4	Personalities — 125
4.1	Philip II — 127
4.1.1	Philip's span of life, length of reign and dates of accession to power and death — 128
4.1.2	Philip hostage in Illyria and Thebes — 130
4.1.3	Philip's regency? — 135
4.1.4	Philip II's wives — 138
4.2	Fathers and sons: Philip and Alexander — 142
4.2.1	Philip's murder — 142
4.2.2	Philip II's last abode — 147
4.2.3	Philip's heritage and Alexander's plans — 161
5	Envoi: Were the Macedonians visited by heaven-sent madness? — 170
6	Conclusion — 177
Abbreviations and Bibliography — 179
Index — 205
Figures — 239	