

Contents

Acknowledgements	VII
List of Illustrations	VIII
Abbreviations	X
Notes on Contributors	XI

Introduction	1
Heather Richardson Hayton

PART 1

The City and Commune

1	Siena: the City and Its State Throughout Time	11
	Mario Ascheri
2	The Significance of Montaperti	31
	Bradley R. Franco
3	“Per queste cose ognuno sta in santa pace et in concordia”: Understanding Urban Space in Renaissance Siena	51
	Fabrizio Nevola
4	Saint Catherine and Siena	69
	Jane Tylus

PART 2

Art and Religion

5	“Beata quella città della sua patria!”: Siena’s Religious Culture and Carthusian Monasticism	85
	Demetrio S. Yocum
6	The Marian Altarpieces of Pietro and Ambrogio Lorenzetti	113
	Sheri F. Shaneyfelt

- 7 The Discussion and Transmission of Reformed Religious Beliefs in Early-Modern Siena 132
Andrea Beth Wenz

- 8 Bernardino of Siena in the History and Culture of the City of L'Aquila 154
Santa Casciani

PART 3

Culture and Society

- 9 Public Health and Hospitals in Medieval Siena before the Black Death 175
Anna M. Peterson
- 10 “Sebben che siamo donne ...”: Sienese Women in the Troubled Years at the End of the Republic (c.1500–60) 195
Elena Brizio
- 11 “Sotto un Lauro in corona”: Literate Women in 16th-Century Siena 218
Konrad Eisenbichler
- 12 “An Occasion to Banish Melancholy”: Musical Culture in Early Modern Siena 241
Colleen Reardon

EPILOGUE

The Foundations of Contemporary Siena

- The “Gothic Queen”: the Myth of Siena in the 19th and 20th Centuries 263
Saverio Luigi Battente

- Illustrations 289
Bibliography 309
Index 339