

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments vii

Abbreviations xi

Introduction 1

1. The "Market-Conforming Family" in the Era of Labor Recruitment 18
2. The Racialization of Space: Family Housing and Anti-Ghettoization Policy 47
3. Trickle of Money, Floods of Children: The 1974 Child Allowance Reform and the Birth of the "Welfare Migrant" 75
4. Are Men Family Members? Husbands, Teenagers, and "False Family Reunification" 101
5. "Foreign Parents Violate the Rights of the Children": Restricting Child Migration in the Name of Child Welfare 129
6. Marriage, Deportation, and the Politics of Vulnerability 161
7. Between Two Fathers? The Foreign Child in Citizenship Reform 192

Conclusion: Migration Without End 217

Notes 227

Bibliography 269

Index 285