

Table of Contents

List of Figures	7
Acknowledgements	9
Foreword Ivars Ījabs	11
Introduction Latvia and Latvian Identity in Historical Perspective Siobhán Hearne	17
1 Mapping Latwija Matiss Siliņš and Latvian Cartographic Publishing in the 1890s Catherine Gibson	39
2 The Sokolowski Affair Testing the Limits of Cultural Autonomy in Interwar Latvia Christina Douglas & Per Bolin	63
3 More than a Means to an End Pērkonkrusts's Antisemitism and Attacks on Democracy, 1932–1934 Paula Oppermann	83
4 “My Home and My Family Are Now Our Regiment” National Belonging and Familial Feelings in Latvian Units during World War II Harry C. Merritt	105
5 The Economic Program of the Latvian National Communists – Myth or Reality? Daina Bleiere	129
6 Latvia Goes Rogue Language Politics and Khrushchev's 1958 Soviet Education Reform Michael Loader	151

7	Latvian Photography of the 1960s between Art and Censorship	189
	Ekaterina Vikulina
8	Onwards and Upwards!	213
	Mainstreaming Radical Right Populism in Contemporary Latvia
	Daunis Auers
9	Gaming the System	233
	Far-Right Entryism in Post-Soviet Latvian Politics
	Matthew Kott
	Glossary of Archives	257
	About the Contributors	259
	Index	261