

Contents

Ger Duijzings, Lucie Dušková

- 1 Introduction — 1

Prologue: Towards Normalisation of Night Work?

Antoine Paris

- 2 “. . . Working Night and Day” Working at Night as a Metaphor in Paul's First Epistle to the Thessalonians — 23

Agrarian Societies/Early Industrialism

Arun Kumar

- 3 The Nights of Bombay Workers (1870–1920) — 45

Rosa Maria Fina

- 4 Nightwork in Lisbon (1890–1915) — 69

Liberal Market Economies

Jakub Rákosník

- 5 Night Work Restrictions in Interwar Czechoslovakia (1918–1938) — 85

Malte Müller

- 6 Disrupted Times: Continuous Shift Workers in Societal and Sociological Debates Between Boom and Crisis (1945–1975) — 105

Anja Katharina Peters

- 7 “Enter the World of Danger, Drama and Death!”: The Perception of the Night Nurse in Popular Fiction (1970s–1990s) — 131

Authoritarianism

Bridget Kenny

- 8 “Threatening Our Home Life”: Shop Hours and White Women Retail Workers’ Struggles Around Evening Hours in Johannesburg South Africa (1908–1960s) — 155

Lucie Dušková

- 9 The Socialist Image of the Night Shift and Its Practices (1945–1966) — 189

Global Capitalism of the Twenty-First Century

Asya Karaseva, Maria Momzikova

- 10 Not Only Night Work: Time Difference, National Power-Geometry and Night Communications in Contemporary Far-Eastern Russia — 213

Simiran Lalvani

- 11 Delivering the Night-Time Economy Home: Nocturnal Labour and Temporalities of Platform Work — 237

Epilogue: Sleeping at Night?

Hannah Ahlheim

- 12 Expanding the Limits. Towards a History of Working and Waking in Modern Societies — 255

List of Contributors — 271