

Table of Contents

List of Illustrations and Tables — VII

List of Contributors — IX

Bilingual Glossary of Place Names in North Schleswig/South Jutland — XI

Peter Thaler

Preface — XIII

Peter Thaler

1 Analyzing Schleswig
An Introduction — 1

Hans Schultz Hansen

2 A Community Takes Shape
Germans in North Schleswig between the 1840s and 1914 — 11

Ryan J. Gesme

3 To Remain a Schleswiger
The Construction of Communal Identities in the Era of the Great War — 47

Henrik Becker-Christensen

4 Not a State of Their Own
The German Minority 1920–1939 — 67

Anika Seemann

5 On War, Loyalty, and Reconciliation
The German Minority during the Second World War and the Postwar Legal Reckoning — 91

Frank Lubowitz

6 Reconstruction—Consolidation—Equality
The Organized Minority in the Postwar Decades — 115

Michael Byram

- 7 Learning to Belong
School, Language, and Identity in North Schleswig in the 1980s — 133

Jørgen Kühl

- 8 Minority in Transition
The German Community in Denmark
1995 – 2020 — 155

Ruairidh Tarvet

- 9 Between Openness and Authenticity
The Current State of Linguistic Identity in the German Minority of North Schleswig — 175

Peter Thaler

- 10 Like Snow in the Sun?
A Conclusion — 195

Bibliography — 211

Index — 221