

Contents

Preface	ix
Introduction: History's Protagonists	1
PART ONE The Era of World Wars
1 Paths to the Project-State	21
2 The Promise of Resource Empires	51
3 The Realm of Governance and the Web of Capital	81
PART TWO Mid-Century Ambitions
4 Projects for the Postwar: Nations, Empires, and Governance, 1940s–1960s	117
5 Countervailing Power? Capital's Projects and Their Limits, 1948–1960s	161
6 Contesting the Postwar Order: Coal, Steel, Oil, and Dollars, 1950s–1970s	195
PART THREE Contending Projects since the 1970s
7 Deploying Governance	237
8 Reinventions, 1978–1990s	278
9 Convergences and Catastrophe: States, Governance, and Capital	318
10 The Populist Assertion and the Return of Authoritarianism	360
Notes	395
Index	489