

Contents

Abstract — VI

Acknowledgments — VII

List of Figures — XIII

List of Maps — XV

List of Tables — XVII

Abbreviations — XIX

Chapter 1

Introduction — 1

The Argument and Background — 1

A Brief History of German Colonization — 4

Literature and Definition of Basic Concepts — 6

Memory History in Africa — 11

Areas of the Study — 17

Methodology — 18

The Structure — 21

Chapter 2

German War Memories in British Tanganyika: Imperial Rivalries, Commemorations and Heroism, 1920–1960s — 23

Introduction — 23

The Transition Period, 1914–1922 — 24

Colonial Monuments: From the Wissmann Monument to the Askari
Monument — 28

Reactions and Counter-Reactions to the Erection of the Askari
Monument — 32

Africans Involvement in the Politics of Commemoration and Heroism — 40

The Politics Involved in the Payment of Ex-German Askaris — 45

Campaign for the Return of the Skull of Chief Mkwawa, 1918–1955 — 49

The Imperial War Graves in Post-colonial Tanzania — 57

Conclusion — 60

Chapter 3

Recovering German Buried Memories, 1920–Present — 61

- Introduction — 61
- Searching for Hidden German Records — 66
- Searching for and Excavating German Records — 74
- Utility of German Records — 77
- Archiving German Records of the Land Office — 80
- Establishment of the National Archives in Tanzania — 81
- German Records in the National Archives — 83

Chapter 4

Commemorating the Maji Maji War in Tanzania: The Case of Songea — 86

- A General Survey of the Historiography of the Maji Maji War — 88
- Remembering Maji Maji at the National Level: Maji Maji as a National Epic — 93
- Memories of Maji Maji after Independence — 96
- Maji Maji in Schools — 98
- Maji Maji Memorial Sites and Commemorative Events in Songea — 102
- Memories of the Hangings — 108
- Memories of the Capture and Execution of Nduna Songea Mbano — 111
- Underground Commemoration of War Heroes in Colonial Ungoni — 116
- The Construction of Majimaji Memorial Museum — 118
- Post-independence Commemorations of War heroes, 1960s to the Present — 123
- The Agonies of the Bereaved Families: From Where they Stand — 129
- Conclusion — 132

Chapter 5

The Chagga People's Collective Memories of the Germans: Nostalgia, Trauma and Legacy — 134

- Introduction — 134
- Chagga Contact with Missionaries — 135
- Memories of Holy Ghost Fathers at Kibosho — 144
- Father George Fritze and Memories of him at Ashira — 149
- Contacts with Germans as Imperialists — 156
- Memories of the First World War — 159
- Legacy of German Stone Building Technology — 161
- Hamsa Ishirini*: Memories of Corporal Punishment — 165
- Memories of Executions — 168
- Execution of Mrekereke and Molelia — 171

Preservation of German Cultural Memories in Uchagga — 173
Conclusion — 178

Chapter 6

Places of German Colonial Memories in the City of Dar es Salaam — 179

Introduction — 179
Dar es Salaam in the Pre-German Era — 185
Dar es Salaam in German Times — 187
Dar es Salaam in British Times — 196
Conservation of German Buildings after Independence: Opposition,
Debates and Consensus — 203
Suppressing Colonial Memories by Renaming Streets and Buildings — 206
Conclusion — 209

Chapter 7

Summary and Conclusion — 211

Archival Sources — 219

Other Archival Materials — 221

Oral Sources — 225

Bibliography — 227

Index — 243

