

Contents

Acknowledgements — V

Contributors — IX

Cordelia Heß and Gustavs Strenga

Doing Memory of Medieval Saints and Heroes in the Baltic Sea Region — 1

Popular Culture

Sari Katajala-Peltomaa

A Tool to Think With? Saint Birgitta as Cultural Heritage in Post-Reformation Finland — 23

Kristina Jöekalda

Mothers of the Land: Baltic German and Estonian Personifications from the Virgin Mary to the Epic Linda — 43

Gustavs Strenga

From Bishop-Killer to Latvian National Hero: Imanta's Transformations from the Middle Ages to Nation-Building — 81

Local

Steffen Hope

Saints and Urban Medievalism: The Case of Saint Knud Rex in Modern-Day Odense — 113

Marianna Shakhnovich

The Memorialization of Natural Loci and the Veneration of the Holy Equal-to-the-Apostles Princess Olga in Northwestern Russia (19th–Early 21st Centuries) — 145

National

Anna Ripatti

State, Race, and Colonization: Tyrgils Knutsson's Controversial
Monuments in 19th-Century Finland — 161

Henrik Ågren

St Erik, Reformation, and Enlightenment: Early Modern History Writing on a Swedish Catholic Patron of the Realm — 189

Shared Heritage

Mart Kuldkepp

The Story of Sigtuna's Destruction (1187) and Estonian Nationalism, 1868–1940 — 207

Jan Rüdiger

The Bold/Bald Count: Tracing the 1½ Memories of Gerhard III of Holsatia — 225

Kati Parpei

"The Holy Ascetics of Karelia": The Integration of Russian Medieval Sainly Cults into Finnish Orthodox Collective Memory, 1896–1944 — 257

Concluding Remarks

Anti Selart

Remaking Saints and Heroes — 283

Index — 295