

A Cultural Symbiosis

Patrician Art Patronage and Medicean Cultural Politics in Florence (1530–1610)

EDITED BY
KLAZINA D. BOTKE
AND
HENK TH. VAN VEEN

LEUVEN UNIVERSITY PRESS

Table of Contents

Abbreviations	7
Introduction
Henk Th. van Veen	9
I. Baccio the Younger and the Resurrection of the House of Valori
Henk Th. van Veen and Carla D'Arista	41
II. The Pucci of Florence: Trusted Counsellors in Florence, Watchful Eyes in Rome
Carla D'Arista	73
III. Michelangelo's Brutus and the Florentine Exiles in Sixteenth- Century Italy
Julia Dijkstra	111
IV. Bernardo Vecchietti (1514–1590): Supplier of Expertise, Artefacts, and Men for Three Medici Grand Dukes
Bouk Wierda	137
V. Palazzo del Nero: From Patrician to Courtly Spheres
Henk Th. van Veen	177
VI. Devotion Beyond Conflict: Two Generations of Salviati and Their Relationship with Savonarola and the Medici
Klazina D. Botke	199

VII. Agnolo Guicciardini (1525–1581): A Patrician Mainstay of Medici Cultural Politics Sanne Roefs	229
VIII. A Leap of Quality: The Well-Planned Career of Giovanni di Agnolo Niccolini (1544–1611) Under the Sway of the Medici Andrea Zagli	267
Addendum: Medici Archive Project	307
List of contributors	309
Index	311