

Acknowledgments vii

Introduction. Africa, Motors, and a History of Development 1

1. Walking to the Car: A Popular History of Mobility and Infrastructure in Tanganyika, 1860s to 1960 33

2. Overhaul: Making Men and Cars in Repair Garages 82

3. The People's Car of Dar es Salaam: Buses, Socialism, and Technological Citizenship 143

4. Oily Ujamaa: Petroleum, Rural Modernization, and "Effective Freedom" before and after the "OPEC Bombshell" 185

5. Motorized Domesticities: Care, Road, and Home in Independent Tanzania 233

Conclusion. Motoring Out of Time: Tanzanian Automobility in Unsustainable Times 275

Notes 301

Bibliography 371

Index 401