

Contents

Introduction

Mary Pepchinski, Christina Budde 9

I. The Politics of Representation (1): Gender, Memory, Care

Nicht zuschütten

A personal remembrance of Margarete Schütte-Lihotzky
Irene Nierhaus 21

Care Trouble

Thinking through gendered entanglements in architecture
Elke Krasny 27

II. Women Architects and the Experience of Exile, Migration and War

Gertrud Goldschmidt

Architect and Zionist
Sigal Davidi 47

“A small flock of female students”

Paul Schmitthenner’s Meisterklasse in Tübingen, 1944-1945
Wolfgang Voigt 65

Judith Stolzer-Segall

A cosmopolite between Europe and Mandatory Palestine/Israel

Edina Meyer-Maril 85

Politics, Privilege and Architecture

Victoria zu Bentheim und Steinfurt (1887-1961), a pioneering woman architect in the tradition of the European high nobility during the 1930s and the 1940s

Karl Kiem 97

III. Women Architects in divided Europe 1945-1990

“Ideas that may be of benefit to your own country.”

Two German women architects and the American Cultural Exchange Program during the early post-war years

Kerstin Renz 109

Conservative Ideology, Progressive Design

Planning SAFFA 1958

Katia Frey, Eliana Perotti 127

“I do not assert myself.”

Women architects in State Socialist Hungary

Mariann Simon 147

Maria Schwarz

Architect, wife, widow

Annette Krapp 161

IV. Gender and Global Practice

Denise Scott Brown and Zaha Hadid

Peripheries and centers

Kathleen James-Chakraborty 179

V. The Politics of Representation (2): Women Architects on Display

Recording and Reflecting

On AAXX100AA Women in Architecture 1917-2017

Elizabeth Darling & Lynne Walker 199

Frau Architekt

Two reasons and a résumé

Christina Budde 215

About Frau Architekt

Stéphanie Bouysse-Mesnager in conversation with Mary Pepchinski

Stéphanie Bouysse-Mesnager, Mary Pepchinski 231

VI. Engaging the Academy, Challenging the Profession

Making Difference

Reflections on teaching "Architectures of Gender"

Torsten Lange & Gabrielle Schaad 243

Introducing Gender and Spatial Theory to the Technical University of Darmstadt

Donna J. Drucker 261

A Gendered Profession

Reflections on an experiment

Harriet Harriss and Ruth Morrow 275

Authors 285